Ca Hi Ana

Carthage High School
Carthage, Indiana

We, the Senior Class of 1970, do hereby dedicate
the 1970 Ca Hi Ana to Mrs. Vera R. Compton.

Thank you, Mrs. Compton, for your never-ending patience and excellent guidance.

It was a pleasure to have you as our advisor for most of our secondary education and we are proud to call you our friend.

HISTORY OF OUR ANNUAL...

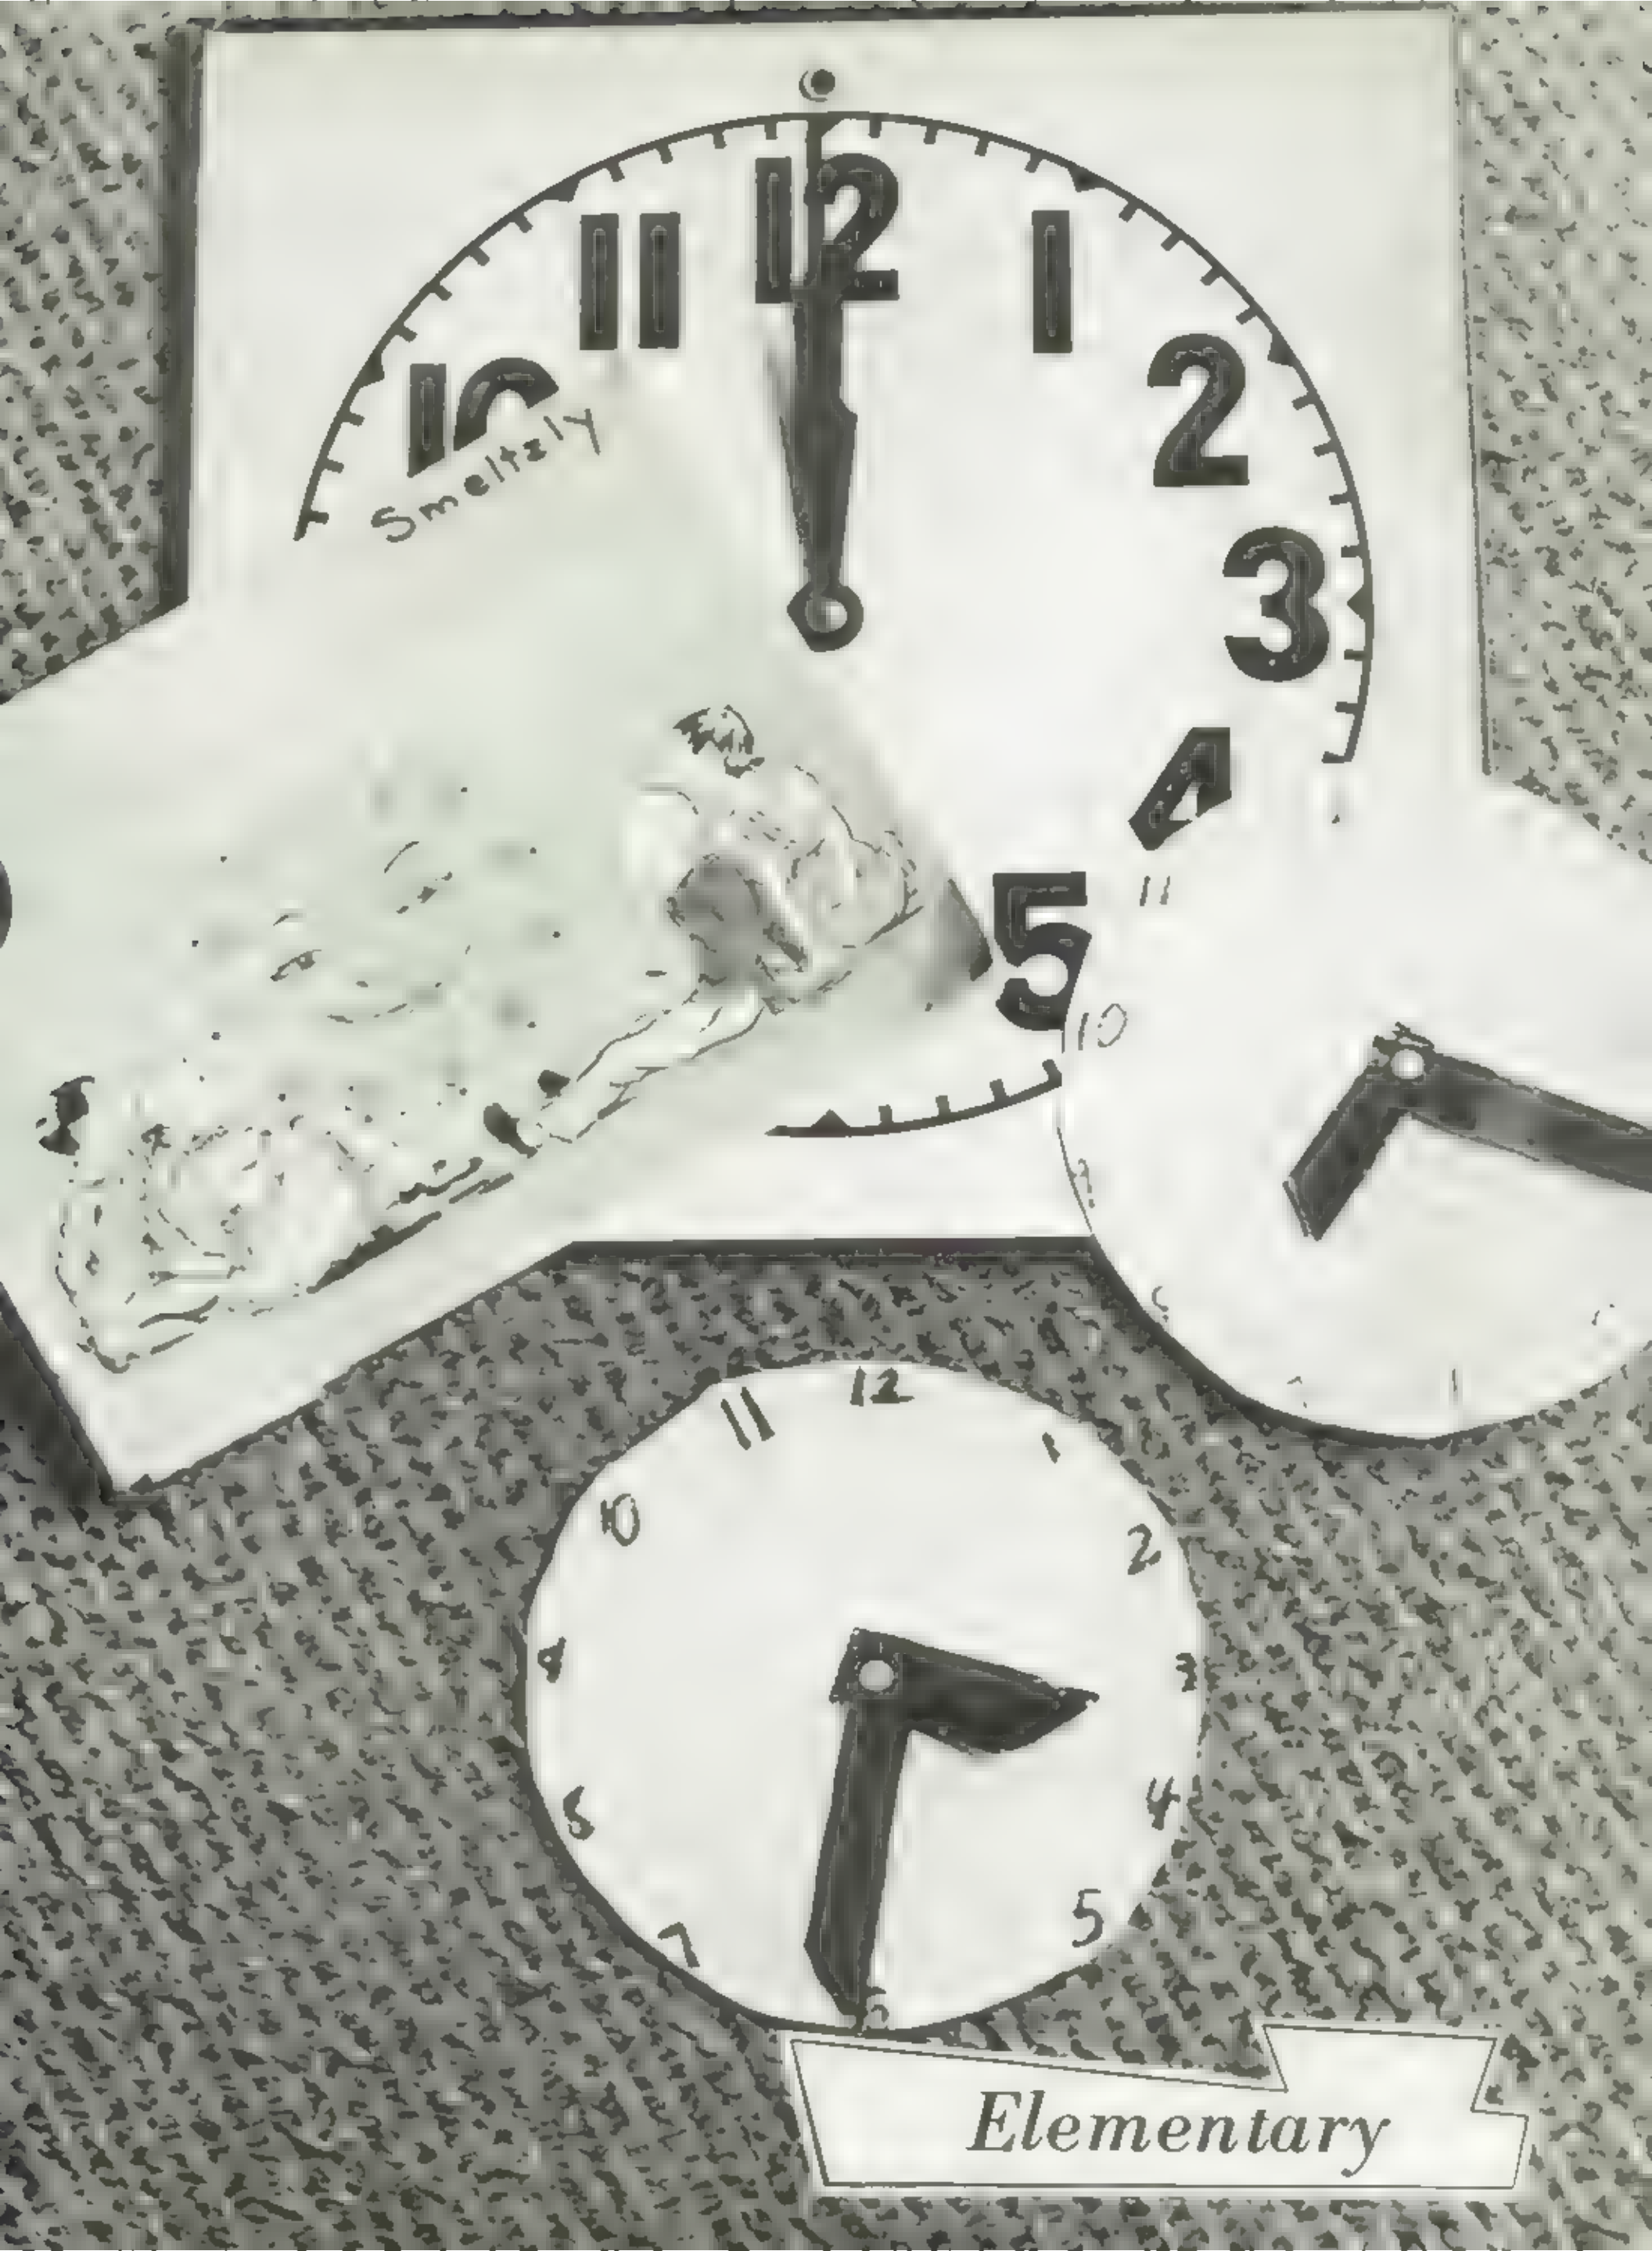

In 1961, the Carthage chapter of the National Honor Society published the first annual for this school, entitled THE ECHO.

In 1962, the senior classes started sponsoring the yearbook. Its name was changed to CA HI ANA for the 1963 volume.

Now, the Class of 1970 proudly presents the tenth issue.

Dedications have been made to the following for these ten publications:

- 1961 - John Rhoades
- 1962 - Alta Carfield
- 1963 - Parents of the Class of 1963
- 1964 - Bayard Baker
- 1965 - Past Graduates of Carthage High School
- 1966 - Richard D. Trubey
- 1967 - B.E. Smith
- 1968 - Eugene R. Gardner
- 1969 - Robert H. Wright
- 1970 - Vera R. Compton

High School Chorus

Sixty students enrolled in the chorus for 1969-1970. During the school year, the organization sang for the Thanksgiving and Easter convocations at the school as well as in the Sacred Concert, the P-T-O Christmas program, and the Spring Show. The group also was part of the 750-voice mass choir at the Eastern Indiana District Choral Festival held at New Castle. After working in the concession stand for four home basketball games, the chorus used its earnings to pay all the expenses to the Chrysler High School's production of LI'L ABNER in May.

Members of the vocal ensembles are selected from auditions. All of these groups appeared at Open House, in the Sacred Concert, at the IMEA solo-ensemble auditions at Muncie, in Christmas carolling around school and town, for different church activities, and for different local organizations such as the Lions Club, the P-T-O, and the Volunteer Firemen. One group sang for the District Postmasters meeting, and this in turn led to other engagements out of town.

The Carthage High School has participated in the district choral festival five years and this year marked the second time that one of the ensembles was honored and invited to sing on the program. The Boys Barber Shop Quartet was most entertaining to all present.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"Paris by Night" was the theme of the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom. It was held in the East-side YMCA at Indianapolis on Saturday, May 9, 1970.

Among the attractive decorations was a wishing well filled with colorful flowers. The music was provided by "All Those Blues" from Indianapolis.

Miss Kathy Chandler was crowned the Prom Queen.

Another deadline met!

In memory of Danny Glen Ridlen (Gmurk). Danny, who was a fourth grade student, was with us for a short time only.

He was killed in an automobile accident March 6, 1970.

Danny will be sadly missed by both his family and friends.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE ...

... Mrs. Sue Ann Land, yearbook sponsor, whose guidance and knowledge made our yearbook possible.

... Mr. Joseph Cooney, who was kind and patient enough to take pictures of the seniors, faculty, and student body.

... Mr. Joseph Porter, who took pictures of the underclassmen.

... The C.H.S. faculty and student body, whose cooperation was sincerely appreciated.
